Smart ideas to
Make you look great!

1 Sample sales where you live!

One of the best ways to get designer clothing at great prices? Sample sales! Trouble is, most of these events are in New York or Los Angeles. Now, a company called Thread Lounge is taking the savings on the road, offering sales on brands like Michael Kors and Tory Burch all over the country! To find out their latest location, check out ThreadLounge.com.

2 The perfect summer jewelry!

If you're wearing one of this summer's trendy printed tops or dresses, keep your jewelry to a minimum. Because the print has a lot of visual interest, a simple bangle or earrings will let the design speak for itself—and let you look your best!

3 Get free shipping!

Next time you're shopping online, head to FreeShipping.org before you buy. With more than 4,000 stores as members, the site offers coupon codes for free shipping on almost everything you want to buy!

4 Finally! Clothes that fit perfectly!

Tired of buying clothes online only to find they don't fit once they arrive? No more! Just enter your measurements and style preferences at MyTrueFit.com, and the free site sends you suggestions of clothes that cater to your particular shape!

5 Keep your essentials cool!

Heading out in the sun? If you're taking your makeup or medicine along, check out a Cool-It Caddy. These insulated clutch bags have a coolant in them that works to keep items chilled for up to five hours, even in extreme heat! ($39.95 at Cool-ItCaddy.com.)
