Although there's a time and a place for a fun shower curtain covered in rubber duckies, if you share a bath, you don't always want your place looking like a total kid fest. Here are a few shower curtains that are fun for them while still being a bit grownup.

These shower curtains are cool for adults and kids alike. They're full of pattern, color or prints and texture. Which one is your favorite? Don't forget to check for color options if you see one you like but won't quite work in your space.
